New Standing Rules for 2014

2.23.14 Splits in driving classes

If final is run immediately after splits, the paddock master will separate and send split A into the ring followed by split B with the two minute gate rule being strictly enforced.

Submitted by Show Rules Committee

Passed by BOD for 2014 Show Year.

2.23.2014

2.22.14 International Amateur Qualifying Rule

International Amateur members residing in foreign countries may qualify their horse that is located in the United States, with a trainer, for showing in the amateur division at the AMHA World Show as follows:

The member exhibits a horse in any Amateur halter and/or performance class/classes (excluding amateur driving classes) at two AMHA approved international shows or the AMHA European Regional Championship Show.

The amateur horse, located in the USA, must be owned by the amateur or the amateur's immediate family in order to be entered at the World Show.

The amateur's horse, located in the USA, must be shown, qualified and entered into the World Show in an Open Class.

The amateur exhibitor must meet all Amateur Division and World Show rules and pay the applicable World Show fees.

All amateur classes are included except the amateur driving classes in this qualifying rule. To qualify in any amateur driving class the amateur must drive their horse in one show in the USA.
